

PGG Wrightson Funds Management CEO to leave company

The CEO of PGG Wrightson Funds Management , Peter Baynes, will be leaving the company on 8 February. (PGG Wrightson Funds Management is the contracted Manager of NZ Farming Systems Uruguay). Mr Baynes' role primarily related to the establishment phase of the company and it is not intended to replace him at this stage. Executive responsibility for the delivery of services under the company's contract with NZ Farming Systems Uruguay will be undertaken by Michael Thomas, Group General Manager, Financial Services, PGG Wrightson, the Division through which PGG Wrightson Funds Management reports to its parent company.